

GOLDTOWN RAINY DAY ACTIVITY PACK

COLORING, MAZES, AND MORE FROM GOLDTOWNBOOKS.COM

Have fun with these 5 pages of puzzles and activities highlighting book 3 of the Goldtown series, Canyon of Danger. Jem is the “man of the family” while Pa escorts a prisoner to Sacramento, but nothing goes right for Jem.

Jem's Hometown: Goldtown, California

Goldtown is the source of Jem's troubles when he loses both the family horse and Pa's expensive Henry rifle. Color Goldtown in detail. (Colored pencils work best.) Then take a photo, and send it by replying to the newsletter (if you want to). I'll highlight coloring pages in future newsletters! Include your first name and age.

Coloring for Younger Kids

This is young Jem, age seven, getting ready to pan for gold in book 1 of the Goldtown Beginnings, Jem Strikes Gold. His best friend is his dog, “Gold Nugget.” Color the picture and send a photo by replying to the newsletter, and I’ll highlight your coloring in a future newsletter. Include your first name and age.

Are You an Animal Tracker?

In Canyon of Danger, Jem must identify animal tracks, especially a wolf . . . and his horse. Can you tell the difference between these animals' tracks? Cut out the tracks and glue them in the right square to match the tracks with the animals. (Solution on the last page.)

COUGAR

COYOTE

BEAR

UNSHOD HORSE

Blackwater Canyon Maze

Jem and his cousin, Nathan, decide to look for the family's horse, Copper, by following what they think are clues that the horse may have been stolen and is being held in a dangerous canyon. Help Jem and Nathan wind their way through the canyons and around boulders to find the thieves' camp and hopefully Copper. One wrong move, and they will tumble into the rock-filled Blackwater Creek.

Blackwater Canyon Cut-and-paste Puzzle

Cut out, arrange the 9 puzzle pieces, and glue them in the large square to reveal what Jem and Nathan are up to in Blackwater Canyon.
